Unit 9 Lessons 1-4 and Appositive Review

Directions: Lesson 1 "Correct Sentences" Choose the sentence that is typed correctly. Look for correct capitalization and punctuation.

1. The spring concert is in just two weeks The spring concert is in just two weeks. the spring concert is in just two weeks.
2. will you sing any new songs? Will you sing any new songs? Will you sing any new songs
3. What a lovely voice Rita has? What a lovely voice Rita has What a lovely voice Rita has!
4. You know many of the new songs. You know many of the new songs you know many of the new songs.

Directions: Lesson 2 "Proper Nouns and Proper Adjectives" Click on the word or words that are Proper Nouns and/or Proper Adjectives that should be capitalized.

5. He was born on october 25, 1881.
6. He spent his childhood in the spanish city of barcelona.
7. Later he studied art in madrid.
8. Some of his works were influenced by african art.
9. His paintings hang in european and american museums.

Directions: Lesson 3 "Commas in a Series" Type the following sentences correctly using commas.

10. Seals dolphins and whales performed at the aquarium.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. Bears may vary in size color and eating habits.

Directions: Lesson 4 "More Use for Commas" Type the sentence correctly. Add commas where needed. Don't forget the rules for introductory rules and nouns in direct address.

12. Yes it would be a lot of fun.

13. I don't think Olivia that I can stay.

14. No I'm not sure what you said Linda.

Directions: "Appositives" Click the appositive in each sentence.

15. The famous Model T., the first car produced on an assembly line, appeared in 1908.

16. A smart businessman, Henry Ford, bought small companies.

17. The Model T., Ford's most famous car, brought in large profits.

Directions: "Appositives" Combine the 2 sentences to form an appositive. Use commas to offset the appositive. Start off with the Noun.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. Our dog is ten years old. He is a cocker-spaniel.

19. Mrs. Carroll is in room 412. She is a talented artist.

20. Grandma made peach cobbler for dessert. It is her specialty.

LIVEWORKSHEETS