LET´S UNDERSTAND

Activity 4: Let's read again the e-mail and answer these questions:

⇒ It is important to write your answers in sentences:

- I usually wake up at 6 am.
- I always check my Whatsapp for a moment
- I hardly ever watch TV.

Subject+ adverb of frequency+ verb + complement

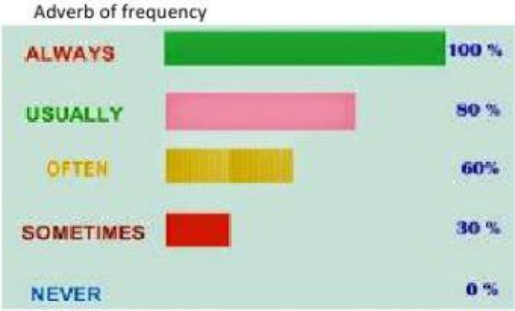
1.In your opinion, how old is Kirsty? _____	2. How does Micaela feel about meeting Fernando? _____
3. What time does Micaela wake up? _____	4. How does Micaela get entertained by using technology? _____

Activity 5: Let's read the definitions and complete the sentences:

What are adverbs of frequency?
An adverb of frequency describes how often an action happens.

Example:
I usually wake up at 6 am. I always check my Whatsapp for a moment

Figure 4
Adverb of frequency



Note: adapted adverb of frequency (March 2017). Retrieved from http://myenglishclass5thlevel.blogspot.com/2015/03/unit-11-world-of-gadgets-adverbs-of.html

Phrasal Verb: It is an idiomatic phrase consisting of a verb and another element, for example:

Verb	Preposition	Meaning
Log	In/ on	to connect to a computer system by putting in a particular set of letters or numbers: password
Join	In	participate, take part
Turn	On	Power up
	Off	Power off
Sign	up	to join a group or organization

Activity 6: Let's read the sentences and choose (x) a phrasal verb:

1. To go into my Facebook account, I have to log in/up my password.
2. To join in/with my virtual classes I need to have the link.
3. The teacher says to turn up/on our cameras in our virtual classes.
4. Turn in/off your microphones to just listen the person who participates, the teacher reminds us.

LIVEWORKSHEETS