Word order in questions

Exercise 1: Use the given words/phrases to form yes/no-questions (questions without question words)

near the ocean / hotel / your / is

_____?

France / visited / ever / Joe / has

_____?

at home / any jobs / to do / he / have / does

_____?

hunting / you / have / gone / ever

_____?

her / forgotten / lately / Mia / homework / has

_____?

you / rubbish / out / take / do / the

_____?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2: Write one subject question and one object question for each statement.

Lucy is going to give an oral presentation tomorrow.
Who….? _____
When…? _____

Jessica wants to study ancient art.
Who….? _____
What…? _____

The students were waiting in the science lab for the teacher.
Who….? _____
Where…? _____

All my classmates were at the party.
Who….? _____
Where…? _____

Exercise 3: Decide if the following questions are subject (S) or object (O) questions.

_ What did Lois buy at the store?

_ What did Kate say to Jim?

_ What made that noise?

_ Why did she scream?

_ What was the color of the spider Jim saw?

_ Who stole the painting?

_ Who is Julia waiting for?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS