BEFORE WATCHING THE FILM GODZILLA 2

Godzilla is a giant monster that was first featured in the Japanese film Godzilla in 1954. It became a popular character in films, comics, television shows, books and video games. It is also known as the "King of monsters".
The story says that Godzilla was created in 1945 when the Japanese cities of Nagasaki and Hiroshima were destroyed by nuclear bombs. After these incidents Godzilla was created by Ishiro Honda to represent the destruction of nuclear weapons. However, Godzilla was shown to be a hero in some film roles, the original intention was to create a monster that threatened humanity. Godzilla is shown as an enormous, destructive, prehistoric sea monster awakened and empowered by nuclear radiation.
The original Japanese name of Godzilla is Gojira. The name Godzilla is a combination of the Japanese words whale and gorilla. Godzilla was described as "a cross between a gorilla and a whale", due to its size, power and aquatic origin.
