2. Retrouve les indications temporelles (dates, âge...) pour les événements ci-dessous. Relie.

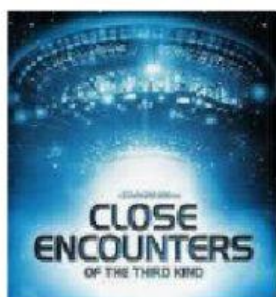

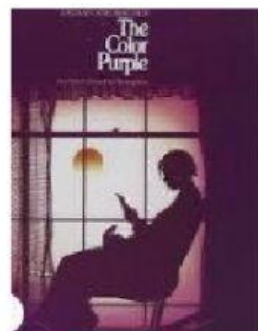

...at age 16, Steven wrote and directed his first independent movie, a 140-minute science fiction adventure called Firelight. While he was a student at California State University, Long Beach, Spielberg made a short film which attracted the attention of Universal Studios... Six years later, he reached world fame with Jaws which was an enormous hit and made him the youngest multi-millionaire in America... After this highly acclaimed film on Holocaust, Spielberg went on addressing issues such as war in Saving Private Ryan (Oscar for Best Director) in 1998 and terrorism in Munich in 2005... Spielberg has always been interested in more than just directing. In the late 70s, he co-founded a production company, Amblin Entertainment, which was responsible for such hits as Gremlins, the Back to the Future series and Men in Black I and II.
