PRESENT SIMPLE VS PRESENT CONTINUOUS

Match the beginnings with the endings of sentences so they have right meaning.

I get up at 6	because I'm a vegetarian.
I'm getting up at 6	because I'm watching a game now and I want to focus on that.
I don't eat meat	because she never gets one.
I'm not eating meat	on Mondays.
We don't talk	because I start work at 7:30.
We aren't talking	because he's on holiday.
Thier daughter doesn't do homework	because I'm feeding my neighbour's parrot before I go to school.
Their daughter isn't doing homework	because we had a fight a few years ago.
My doctor doesn't work	because I'm trying a new diet.
My doctor isn't working	because she's playing outside.

LIVEWORKSHEETS