

5 Senses

1. Watch the video "Dining in the Dark" and answer the questions:

a) Where is this restaurant?

b) What is special about this restaurant?

c) What type of food does the woman think she's eating?

d) Do you need a reservation to eat at this restaurant? If yes, why? If no, why not?

e) Did the woman enjoy her experience? Why or why not?

f) Would you like to eat at a restaurant like this? Why or why not?

2. What are the five senses?

(1) _____

(2) _____

(3) _____

(4) _____

(5) _____

3. When we talk about senses, we typically use the following verbs and formula.

look, smell, taste, sound, feel + ADJECTIVE

- a. The dog looks friendly.
- b. These socks smell terrible.
- c. That cake tastes delicious.
- d. This new surround system sounds really loud.
- e. I feel miserable today.

Complete the sentences with your own answers.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| a. _____ looks good. | _____ looks bad. |
| b. _____ smells fresh. | _____ smells stinky. |
| c. _____ tastes sweet. | _____ tastes delicious. |
| d. _____ sounds loud. | _____ sounds melodic. |
| e. _____ feels soft. | _____ feels hard. |

4. Another common way to talk about senses is with the following formula.

look, smell, taste, sound, feel + LIKE + NOUN

- a. The dog looks like a friendly dog.
- b. These socks smell like feet.
- c. That cake tastes like the cake that my sister makes.
- d. This new surround system sounds like the one at the movie theatre.
- e. I feel like a zombie today.

- a. _____ looks like _____.
- b. _____ smells like _____.
- c. _____ tastes like _____.
- d. _____ sounds like _____.
- e. _____ feels like _____.

5. Write two sentences about each of the following pictures using the sense verbs of look, smell, taste, sound, or feel.

Ex.) It feels hot. It smells like Fall. _____

