

Name: _____

Read the text. Write the corresponding heading to each paragraph

A) your family. B) your appearance. C) Living together. D) your language

What is your identity?

Your identity is who you are. We all have different personalities and we believe in different things. We like doing different activities and we look different too.

1 _____

Have you got curly hair or straight hair? Are your eyes green or blue? We can't choose these things. We inherit them from our parents and grandparents. But we can choose the clothes we wear. Clothes say a lot about our personality. Some people like wearing fashionable, modern clothes and other people like wearing more comfortable, sporty clothes.

2 _____

Have you got lots of brothers and sisters or are you an only child? Your family and the people around you help create your identity. Is your family sporty or do they love reading books? Families often have certain traditions, beliefs and habits. These are part of your identity, too.

3 _____

Did you know that there are almost 7 thousand living languages in the world today? The language that we speak is an important part of our identity. In some countries all the people speak the same language, but in other countries people speak two or three languages. Countries also have their own festivals, special food and traditional songs and dances.

4 _____

Our society is made of millions of people who look different and who feel, think and behave in different ways. If we want to live together, we need to understand and respect these differences.
