Part 1: Choose the correct words for the collocations and expressions

1. You need to (do / make) an effort if you want to pass your exams.
2. If you (smash / break) the rules, you'll get in trouble.
3. Mark has (got / found) a taste for drama. He loves acting in plays.
4. How will you (have / make) progress if you don't do any revision?
5. He's not (in / on) the teacher's good books after failing his exams.
6. You'll soon (get / take) the hang of doing experiments in the lab.

Part 2: Complete the text with the correct prepositions. You can use the answers more than once.

about	at	for	from	in	of	on	with

Tilly goes to boarding school

Tilly was excited! Today was the day she started boarding school. Boarding school! Just like the characters in her favourite books. Ever since she had read the stories she had wanted to attend a school like that. She wasn't worried _____ making new friends – she was good _____ that and had never suffered _____ being shy. Her parents had applied _____ a place _____ the best school in the country, and Tilly had been accepted. It was expensive, but her parents were happy to spend the money _____ her education. They had visited the school and were satisfied _____ the facilities. All Tilly had to do now was concentrate _____ her studies and enjoy his new adventure.

LIVEWORKSHEETS