

Unit 5 (grammar practice)

3 Grammar Practice

Countable and uncountable nouns (with lots of, some, a few, a little, any)

Countable nouns are things that we can count. They have a singular form and a plural form. Uncountable nouns are things we can't count. They always use is / isn't.

Countable nouns	Uncountable nouns
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ There are lots of sweets.✓ There are some sweets.✓ There are a few sweets.✗ There aren't any sweets.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ There is lots of milk.✓ There is some milk.✓ There is a little milk.✗ There isn't any milk.
Are there any sweets? Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.	Is there any milk? Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.

1 Complete the questions.

- 1 Are there any biscuits?
- 2 cheese?
- 3 sandwiches?
- 4 cake?
- 5 grapes?
- 6 juice?
- 7 bananas?
- 8 jam?

2 Look and answer the questions in activity 1. Use the words in the box.

a few some any ~~any~~ some lots of

- 1 No, there aren't any biscuits.
- 2 6
- 3 7
- 4 8

