The Tree Goats of Morocco

Do you know a fact that goats are good at climbbing / climbing trees? When I saw a photo of a big tree with thirteen goats on its branches, I thought it was made by Photoshop. But I believe in it now because my teacher shows me a cool video about the tree goats of Morocco today. The tree goats are smaller / smallest than the mountain goats. They like eating / eats the fruits from the Argan trees so they jump / jumps and climb up the Argan branches.

Tourists love watching and taking photos of the tree goats. It's one of the coolest / cooler things to do when you visit Morocco.

Great Effort! Now read your teacher's feedback.
