UNIT 1: HOMELIFE - LISTENING

I. VOCABULARY

1. Leftover (adj) /'leftəʊvə(r)/ : that has not been eaten or used at the end of something
2. Spread out (v) : to stretch your body or arrange your things over a large area
3. Close-knit: (adj) having strong relationships with each other and taking a close
4. Reserved (adj) = shy: slow or unwilling to show feelings or express opinions

Task 1: Listen to the conversation between Paul and Andrea and decide whether the statements are True (T) or False (F)

	T	F
1. Andrea has booked a flight for tomorrow evening.
2. Paul is very excited about coming home.
3. Paul's home is 280 kilometers from where they are now.
4. There are more children in Andrea's family than in Paul's.
5. When Andrea's family get together, they often go out for dinner.

Task 2: Listen again and not down two things that are different about Paul's and Andrea's families. Tick (v) the correct column.

	Paul	Andrea
1. We are not really a very close-knit family.
2. We're a big family.
3. We live in a very close-knit family.
4. Our members are not very close.
5. The family often go out to eat when they get together.
6. The family often have the big meal the mother cooks at home.
7. My Mother loves to cook so when we get home

LIVEWORKSHEETS