

Listen to the track and complete the gaps

Unit 2

Track 04

Speaker 1: I think when you're really young, your [] time seems to [] an eternity – it just [] [] and []. I remember the summer holidays [] [] for [] and I had so much time [] my []. Then, in next [] [] [], you're an adult and time seems to [] []. It just goes so fast and there aren't enough [] in the day to [] everything []. You feel constantly [] [] time, and [] time becomes this luxury you [] afford anymore!

Speaker 2: There's a [] that 'the [] is another country'. I think that's very true for old people like my gran. For her, the past is a country she likes to visit [] [] and [] at a time [] her memories. She's always telling me that time passes [] the [] of an [] and I should [] of every moment []. But for young people, the past seems like only an instant ago and they don't want to []. They just want to go out and have []! I think that, when you [] the end of it, your life must seem brief and []. Looking [] it helps you feel you've achieved something, helps you feel [] you've done.

Listen to the track and complete the gaps

Track 05

[] years we've been involved in conducting [] of the USA known as Lake Coeur D'Alene. Now, [], our ancestors [] from Europe. They were the pioneers of the colonial era and felt they had discovered []. But in fact, if we go back many thousands of years, we find that [] along the shores of the lake, fishing in [] and digging for potatoes near the shore. And I've been working with a group of archaeologists [] of those prehistoric []. In some areas, we've found [] buried beneath deep layers of sediment. Other areas have [] only small flecks of charcoal from prehistoric fires. [], our discoveries mean that the sites will now receive greater formal protection. For example, we've just learned that the area [] on the National Register of Historic Places. This is wonderful news. It's vital that we [] because several of them are [] destruction. They're [] not only from erosion but also from []. These thieves steal what they see as antiques [] sell them. Without protection, this practice will sadly continue. To help with our research, we aim to [] sites. And we really need to do that [] some urgency. When we [], we will remove any artefacts we manage to [] and put them into [].