

NAME: _____

Match to the correct description. Write the correct natural sources of water to each diagram.

Rains that fall to the earth form streams of water called rivers.

A place where underground water flows out to the earth's surface.

Water droplets that fall to the earth from clouds.

A large part of the earth's surface that is covered with salt water.

A large area of water that is surrounded by land.