

Name:

Date:

Class:

School:

Diseases that affect the mouth Quiz

Drag and drop to label the picture with the correct name.

halitosis	canker sores	gingivitis

Choose the correct answer from the options given.

1. Small shallow ulcers that occur in the lining of the mouth are called _____.
2. An oral health problem where the main symptom is bad breath is known as _____.
3. A common and mild form of gum disease that causes irritation, redness and swelling of your gingiva is known as _____.

Choose true if the statement is true and false if the statement is false.

1. A stress or minor injury in the mouth can cause a canker sore.
2. Sores in your mouth that are round, white or grey in color are not canker sores.
3. Avoiding foods that irritate your mouth is one method to help prevent canker sores.
4. Dry mouth is not a cause of halitosis.
5. Bad breath is not a symptom of halitosis.
6. Practicing good oral hygiene can help prevent halitosis.
7. Bad oral hygiene can lead to gingivitis.
8. Swollen or puffy gums are not symptoms of gingivitis.

9. Brushing your teeth twice a day can help prevent gingivitis.
10. Bad oral hygiene can help prevent gingivitis.

Short answer question: Answer the following question in complete sentences. (4 pts.)

1. Choose one disease that affects the mouth and explain what causes it, at least 2 symptoms of it and at least 2 ways in which you can prevent it.