6. In here you have the summary of the story but not in the correct order. Drag and drop the sentences to the correct place for the story to be coherent.

They build a spaceship.

A strange machine appears.

Wallace and Gromit run out (quedar-se sense) of cheese.

They come back home, but the machine stays on the moon skiing happily.

When they arrive, they don't like the "moon cheese".

Wallace decide to go to the moon to find cheese.
