8 Look at the grammar box. Then complete the paragraph.

Nearly half of all homes in Britain get outside staff [1] _____ (do) their domestic chores for an average of six hours per week. The most common reasons that people gave for having someone [2] _____ (help) around the house were their own long working hours and to avoid arguments with their partner. A third of people said if they didn't have help, nothing would get [3] _____ (do). The most popular domestic jobs are having the house [4] _____ (clean) regularly, getting someone [5] _____ (do) the gardening and having a handyman [6] _____ (fix) things when they are broken. Some of these services do not come cheap either. People pay up to $800 per week to have a personal assistant [7] _____ (organize) their appointments or have their young baby [8] _____ (care) for.