PREPOSITIONES.

Complete the sentences by filling in the correct prepositions.

1. The amount paperwork that doctors have to do these days is phenomenal.

The number of serious injuries sustained in traffic accidents amounts more than half of the total from all causes.

2. Caring Patients is only part of a nurse´s responsibilities.

It is important for doctors to care patients´ quality of life to.

3. The Hospital Administrator is charged the responsibility of providing an efficient and cost-effective service.

Patients are charged treatment if they don´t carry medical insurance.

4. My GP told me that I would benefit more physical exercise.

With the benefit hindsight we now know that too much meat is detrimental to health.

5. His doctor has put him on a special diet and he has on choice what he eats.

Faced with the choice becoming a nurse or a laboratory technician, I´d sooner be a nurse.

6. The Government appears to be deaf the demands of health professionals for better funding.

Ann has always been slightly deaf one ear due to a childhood illness.

7. The hospital spokesperson declined comment on the patient´s health.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

There is a decline the number of people talking up nursing.

8. The patient complained of having difficulty getting around.

   She´s having difficulty her anatomy assignment this week.

9. The doctor was reluctant to commit himself a prognosis.

   The man was committed a psychiatric hospital.

10. The article on stress related illness will feature the medical journal The Lancet next month.

    The spacious gardens are an attractive feature the hospital grounds.

LIVEWORKSHEETS