

NAME: _____ GRADE: _____ GROUP: _____

FORMAL REQUESTS

Affirmative

Subject Pronoun	Would like	+Infinitive Verb +Noun*
I You He/ she/it We You They	would like ('d like)	to talk to the manager. (hablar con el gerente) a cup of coffee. (una taza de café) some water. (un poco de agua)

Affirmative

Subject Pronoun	Would like	+Infinitive Verb +Noun*
I You He/ she/it We You They	would like ('d like)	to talk to the manager. (hablar con el gerente) a cup of coffee. (una taza de café) some water. (un poco de agua)

Affirmative

Subject Pronoun	Would like	+Infinitive Verb +Noun*
I You He/ she/it We You They	would like ('d like)	to talk to the manager. (hablar con el gerente) a cup of coffee. (una taza de café) some water. (un poco de agua)

Read the sentences, consider the situation and circle the correct option to complete them.

Example:
At the bank:

I want/ I would like to check my account number.

At a dinner party with your new classmate:

Would you like/do you want some spaghetti?

At a café:

I would like/ I want a cappuccino.

At the airport:

We would like/ We want two tickets to Mexico City.

Talking about a country you want to visit:

I would like/ I want to go to Thailand.

CHOOSE THE BEST OPTION.

1. Teacher: Marco, _____ erase the blackboard for me?
Marco: _____, teacher.

- A. ☐ you can / Of course
B. ☐ Would you please / Yes, of course
C. ☐ you will / Yes, certainly

2.

Charlotte, _____ send me the document by email?

A. ? Would you please

B. ? Would please you

C. ? You could

..... to have a piece of applepie?

☐ would you love

☐ would you like

We would like you, but we will have other things to do that Saturday

☐ to helping

☐ to help

☐ helping

Charlotte, _____ send me the document by email?

A. ? Would you please

B. ? Would please you

C. ? You could

The children to do a new test for English next week because they had a bad mark for their first test.

☐ would like

☐ would love