Unit 4: Plants

The Man And The Trees

Long, long time ago, people had to work. A man went to the forest to cut down trees. The first tree was a pine tree. As lifting his axe, he heard a voice cry out.

" Don't cut me down. Don't you see, my tears are coming out of my body? If you hurt me, it will bring you bad luck." The man didn't listen to the voice. He kept going to other trees. The man went to an old tree. One more he lifted the axe.

"Be carefull Don't hurt me. Whenever I am cut, blood runs from my heart. It will spot red blood at my wood and your axe." He didn't listen to the voice. He cut down the trees to build a house and make a fire.

The trees were not happy. Now a day, they're talking about the man's cutting down them. They worried about saving their lives for a rainy day.
