

Draw a line to connect each pair of boxes when wind or water moves rocks and soil when water or ice breaks down rocks

It is a land with water all around it

They can explode rock and ash it can cover land

These are where the lands get higher have land around them

It is a large body of salty water

These are large flat areas of land

These are the highest kind of land

It is a star of a big ball of gas, the star that is nearest the Earth water that flows across land happen fast, they can cause land to crack hills

island

plain

mountain

rocks

soil

river

lake

ocean

earthquakes

volcano

weathering

erosion

sun