

VOCABULARY Expressions with make and do

- 1 Write the expressions in the correct places in the chart. Add make or do.

a difference	research
friends	something fun
✓ homework	the right thing
me a favor	you mad

do	make
do homework

- 2 Complete the sentences with the correct expressions from Exercise 1.

- Jacob likes to do the right thing at school. He always follows the rules.
- Charlotte is very friendly, and it's easy for her to _____.
- Kyle really wants to _____ at his school. He started a "stop bullying" group.
- I want to _____ this weekend. Let's go sailing!
- Can you _____? I need help with my homework.
- I never want to _____. I don't like it when you're angry.
- My sister likes to _____ for school projects. She loves learning new things.
- I can't go to the park. I have to _____.

- 3 Circle the correct words. Then write answers with your own information.

1. How often do you do / make homework? Where do you do / make it?

I do homework every night. I do it at my desk.

2. Have you ever done / made a favor for someone? What did you do / make?

3. Do you do / make research online? When?

4. When do you do / make something fun? What do you do / make?

5. Do you do / make friends easily? How do you do / make new friends?

6. When your friends break the rules, do you do / make the right thing? What do you do / make?

7. Who does / makes you mad? Why?

8. Have you ever done / made a difference at your school? What was it?

GRAMMAR Second conditional Wh-questions

1 Match the questions with the answers.

1. What would you do if you didn't finish your homework? d	a. I'd go in August.
2. Who would you tell if someone bullied you at school? _____	b. I'd make new friends.
3. How would you do research if you had to write a paper? _____	c. I'd find information online.
4. If you went on vacation, when would you go? _____	d. I'd ask my teacher for more time.
5. If your friend was rude to you, what would you say? _____	e. I'd tell the principal.
6. What would you do if your family moved to a new city? _____	f. I'd tell her I was upset.

2 Circle the correct words.

Anna: Hey, David. What ¹did / would you do if your friend ²asked / would ask you to cheat on a test?

David: I'd say no! I'd never do that.

Anna: So, if your friend ³cheated / would cheat, who ⁴did / would you tell?

David: Hmm, I probably wouldn't tell anyone.

Anna: Really? Why ⁵wouldn't / didn't you tell anyone if your friend ⁶did / would do something wrong?

David: Well, I'd try to get my friend to do the right thing and tell someone.

Anna: That's a good idea.

3 Write the questions another way. Then answer the questions with your own information.

1. Where would you study if you had a test tomorrow?

Q: If you had a test tomorrow, where would you study?

A: I'd study at the café.

2. If you broke your friend's computer, what would you do?

Q: _____

A: _____

3. If you did someone a favor, who would you help?

Q: _____

A: _____

4. Where would you celebrate if you had a party for your birthday?

Q: _____

A: _____

5. What would you do if you didn't have homework tonight?

Q: _____

A: _____

4 Complete the questions. Use the pictures and answers to help you.

1. Q: What would Tony do if it rained ?

A: He'd take an umbrella.

2. Q: Where _____ ?

A: They'd go rafting in Costa Rica.

3. Q: _____

A: She'd apologize to the teacher.