Juma: Hey, Omar. My mom gave me a video game console for my birthday. Do you want to play a game together?

Omar: Sure! I really enjoy video games. How do you play?

Juma: It's really easy. First, you choose an avatar. Then you listen to music and move the controller around in the air. You can watch your avatar move on the screen!

Omar: Cool! I like playing with a friend instead of alone.

Juma: Me, too! And each person has a score, so we can both play at the same time.

Omar: OK. So do you have to play points?
