

INFINITIVES TO EXPRESS PURPOSE

Change the sentences using an infinitive of purpose (to + verb)

Example. I went to France for a year because I wanted to learn French.

I went to France for a year to learn French.

I made a list of the things I needed for my trip because I didn't want to forget anything.

I made a list of the thing I needed for my trip not to forget anything.

1. She made dinner because she wanted to surprise her mother.

---

2. My best friend studies very hard because he needs to get good grades.

---

3. Owen is going to the gym because he wants to get fit.

---

4. Jane organized her friends because she wanted to have the best volleyball team.

---

5. She is taking writing classes because she wants to write a book.

---

6. He is eating less junk food because he wants to lose weight.

---

7. I studied business management because I wanted to open my own business.

---

8. He's training a lot because he wants to be in the Olympic team.

---

9. I only watch programs in English because I want to improve my listening skills.

---

10. We all stayed home because we didn't want to get a cold with such low temperature.

---

11. I have stopped smoking because I don't want to bother others with the smoke.

---

12. He walked into the room quietly because he didn't want to wake up his wife.

---