

English Worksheet by Kru Pin

Name Class P.4 No.

The Hydra was a snake-like monster with heads and long necks. If one head was , two would grow back in its place.

Dragons are symbols of and power. They often guard a in a cave. They can fire, have big wings and a long spiky tail.

The Sphinx.

It had the of a lion, a human's head and large, strong wings. It asked travellers a Those who could answer the riddle were allowed to and those who could not were killed.

The Sirens were very creatures who were woman and half bird, with wings and claws.

They lived on an island. They used voices and haunting songs to make the ships straight forward to the island and onto the rocks.

Unicorns were that looked like horses.

They were strong, wild fierce, blue eyes and a projecting from their People believed that if they drank from a unicorn's horn, they would be to all poisons.

Centaurs were half and half

They were human with the and legs of a horse. There were two groups: the first were wild and creatures that lived in the mountains and the forests; the other were and wise.