EXAM

Read the text about my favourite celebrity, Lady Di, and answer the questions.

My favourite celebrity is Lady Di. She was a member of the British royal family. She was born on July 1st 1961 in Park House, Sandringham, Norfolk. Her parents were John Spencer and Frances Roche and she had four siblings. When Diana was seven years old her parents divorced. She had a very sad childhood.

Diana was not a good student at school but she was excellent at music and at sports. Actually, she played the piano quite well, spent time swimming and diving and studied ballet and tap dance.

After school, Diana shared her mother's flat in London with two school-friends. Then, she took an advanced cooking course, but hardly ever cooked for her roommates. She took a series of low-paying jobs; she worked as a dance instructor until she had an accident that caused her to miss three months of work. She then worked as a playgroup pre-school assistant. Diana also worked as a nanny for an American family living in London and worked as a nursery teacher's assistant at the Young England School in Pimlico.

Diana married the Prince of Wales on July 29, 1981. She was only twenty years old. A year later she had her first baby, Prince William and in 1984 Prince Harry was born.

However, Lady Diana and Prince Charles had lots of marital problems. Diana was not happy in her marriage. She suffered from depression, bulimia and self-mutilation. She thought Prince Charles didn't love her and accused him of having an affair with Camilla Parker Bowles. Finally, Diana and Charles got divorced in 1996.

On 31 August 1997, Diana was killed in a car crash in the Pont de l'Alma tunnel in Paris. Two more people died that night, Diana's boyfriend Dodi Fayed and the driver, Henri Paul, who was the acting security manager of the Hôtel Ritz Paris. There was only one survivor, Diana's bodyguard, Trevor Rees-Jones. There was a funeral on 6 September and it was watched by millions of people around the world.
