

Family and Resource Management

Circle T for True and F for False to complete the sentences below.

36

- a) Resources are methods of achieving goals. _____
- b) We exercise good management when we use resources wisely.

- c) Human resources can be used to achieve our goals.

- d) Some human resources are personal. _____
- e) Non-human resources are interrelated and dependent on each other. _____
- f) Human resources can be used by themselves. _____
- g) Human resources are also known as personal or affective resources. _____
- h) Knowledge is a human resource. _____
- i) Money is a human resource. _____
- j) Fringe benefits are non-human resources. _____
- k) Time is both a human and community resource. _____
- l) An example of a non-human and human resource is time.

Place the following resources on the left into the correct boxes on the right.
N.B. Time is repeated.

Abilities

Attitudes

Church

Clinics

Community centers

Creativity

Equipment

Fringe benefits

Fuel

Health services

Intelligence

Interest

Knowledge

Library

Material goods

Money

Parks

Schools

Skills

Space

Streets

Time

Time

Tools

Human Resources

Non- Human resources

Community resources

