

The image displays four seasonal tree illustrations arranged in a 2x2 grid. Each illustration is accompanied by empty boxes for labeling parts of the tree.

- Top Left (Spring): A tree with budding leaves. Labels point to the trunk, branches, and leaves.
- Top Right (Summer): A tree with full, dense foliage. Labels point to the trunk, branches, and leaves.
- Bottom Left (Autumn): A tree with leaves marked by dark dots, representing falling leaves. Labels point to the trunk, branches, and leaves.
- Bottom Right (Winter): A bare tree with no leaves. Labels point to the trunk, branches, and the ground.
