

Insects and Spiders

Insects and spiders are invertebrates. They belong to a group called arthropods.

Characteristics of Insects

1. Insects have three body segments: head, thorax, and abdomen.
2. Insects have six legs.
3. Most insects have wings and a pair antennae.

Characteristics of Spiders

1. Spiders have two body segments: head and abdomen.
2. Spiders have eight legs and eight eyes.
3. Most spiders spin silk webs that they use to catch their prey.

