

Complete the paragraph

1. live somewhere and stay somewhere?
2. hosts and guests?
3. a landlord and a tenant?
4. renting and owning a property (house or flat)?
5. check in and move in?
6. a flatmate and a next-door neighbour?

If you're looking for a place to _____¹ when you're travelling, Airbnb is a good option. When you use the website, you can see the location of the _____² and you can also read what other _____³ have said about their experiences there. You can check your travel dates on the website and if you have any questions, you can message the _____⁴ directly. The website also explains the house rules and what time you can _____⁵. If you're arriving earlier or later than those times, sometimes a _____⁶ can give you the key. It's so easy!

These people want to visit Oxford, England, and they are looking for an Airbnb. Read about each person and then match them with the best property:

Ana is arriving by train and wants to stay in the city for a few days. She doesn't like cooking but she will be going to an important meeting in the city centre during her visit, and needs to look good. She will also be working on her laptop in the evenings.

Mike is arriving by car with his dog and staying for 10 days. Mike plans to meet some old friends who live in Oxford and they're going to get up early and go for long walks in the countryside together. He'd like to save some money by cooking his own meals.

	Property 1	Property 2	Property 3	Property 4
Location	Near city centre	Near city centre	City centre	Village near Oxford
Sleeping	2 singles, 1 double	2 king	1 double plus sofa	2 doubles
Amenities	Wifi, large screen, TV, hairdryer, washing machine, full kitchen, private entrance	Wifi, parking, large screen TV, microwave, kitchen basics	Wifi, iron, hairdryer, kitchen basics	Wifi, parking, washing machine, iron, coffee maker, full kitchen
House rules	No smoking, three people maximum	No smoking, no pets	No smoking, no pets	No smoking, no children under 3

Expressions

1. Making an offer :
2. Accepting an offer:
3. Declining an offer:
4. Asking permission:
5. Giving permission:
6. Making a request:
8. Accepting a request:

- I can't see any problem
- Where is the...?
- Would you like ...?
- ... is/are not allowed
- Is it ok if ...
- It's fine
- Of course
- I want to... is it ok?
- Thank you
- Can / Could I...?

Look at the picture and complete the

Host: Can I help you?

Guest: Yes, thank you. I'm looking for

Host: Do you have any reservations?

Host: No, I don't.

1. Making an offer :
2. Give permission
3. Accept the request

Guest: (Ask about)

1. Accepting/ decline an offer:
2. Declining an offer:
3. . Making a request:

Now work in pairs to roleplay the conversation

You are a tourist in your own country. Meet your host and ask him / her about the things you want Wifi, mini bar, pool, single rooms, etc.

You will meet the house guest, listen to his/her requests and check what they prefer. Remind your guests about the house rules.

