

WS 1

Seventy years ago, Ray Bradbury predicted the appearance of various devices, which have now become commonplace. Read the predicting quotes and join them with the icons of real equivalents.

Bradbury's predictions

SHORT STORY "THE VELDT"

"The walls were blank and two dimensional. Now, as George and Lydia Hadley stood in the center of the room, the walls began to purr and recede into crystalline distance, it seemed, and presently an African veldt appeared, in three dimensions, on all sides, in color reproduced to the final pebble and bit of straw ..."

CLIP 3 _____

Listen to this part of the story. Select all true statements?

1. The lions are just crystal walls, they are just supersensitive color film and mental tape film behind glass screens.
2. Lydia wants George to tell Wendy and Peter to read more on Africa.
3. When George locked the nursery a month ago for a few hours, Peter threw a tantrum.
4. Lydia suggests shutting the whole house off for a few days and taking a vacation.
5. Lydia doesn't agree to fry eggs or darn socks for her husband, nor to sweep the house.
6. Lydia thinks she can't compete with an African veldt and the automatic scrub bath.

CLIP 4 _____

Listen to this part of the story and answer the questions:

- 1) Why do George and Lydia have dinner alone?
- 2) Why does George think that it won't hurt for the children to be locked out for a while?
- 3) Does he think that the children are too young for death thoughts?
