

Listen and complete with the following words:

plant - sheep - sand - plastic - wood - buildings - animal - wool - wood - man made - different - cotton - natural - silkworm - furniture - clothes - matter - nature - rocks - people - oil - mineral - granite -heat

A pullover, a table and a pen are [] because they are made from different types of materials.

A pullover is made of [], a table is made of [] and a pen is made of []. So, each type of [] that is used to make an object is called material.

And materials can be [] or []. Natural materials are found directly from [], and include [], wood, [] ...etc. Man-made materials are made by [] from natural materials. And it includes plastic which comes from [], glass which comes from [] and paper which comes from [].

All these materials can have a [] origin, an [] origin or a [] origin. So, in the case of mineral origin we can get [] and marble from rocks, for [], and we can get also coal for producing [].

Related to animal origin, we can get wool from the [], leather from the cows and silk from the [].

Related to the plant origin we can get wood for making [] or houses and cotton for making [].