Najmee is reading about the traditional accessories worn at the Gawai Dayak festival.

Gawai Dayak is a festival celebrated in Sarawak on the 1st and 2nd June every year. The Gawai Dayak is celebrated by the Dayaks. During this festival, a traditional dance called the Ngajat is performed.

While performing the dance, the male dancers wear a headgear called burang sumba. It is made of cloth with golden lace. They wear a long loin-cloth called tahup. It is wrapped neatly around the body with one end hanging down in front and the other end hanging behind. They wear bangles and a pair of earrings. They hold a long sword in one hand and an ornately decorated shield in the other.

The female dancers wear an elaborate headdress called sipiah and a knee length dress with intricate weaving. It is called jomuh. Their necklaces are made of beads. Copper bangles called sarim are worn on the legs from the knee downward. They wear copper bangles on their arms and forearms as well. Copper belts called porik are also worn by the women.

In conclusion, if you have never seen a Ngajat dance, visit Sarawak during Gawai Dayak to experience its uniqueness.
