

Select the correct answer:

1. The last step taken by a designer for each project is:

- a) Production
- b) Research
- c) Evaluation

2. When designing a product or an item for a particular group of people we refer to them as a:

- a) Target market
- b) Special group
- c) Shopping market

3. An engineer has designed and built a prototype of a space rover. What is the engineer's next step?

- a) Test the working prototype
- b) Evaluate the design for revision
- c) Make sketches of the prototype

4. In which step of the design process you would create a 3D printed model of your design?

- a) Possible solutions
- b) Design Realisation
- c) Evaluation

5. In order to develop design ideas for a new sports watch, your design team visited five different athletes' stores to identify their needs. What part of the design process is this?

- a) Analysis of brief
- b) Design Realisation
- c) Research and generate ideas