D) Choose the best option.

Amanda is my best friend. We have known each other [1] since / for kindergarten. She has [2] study / studied at the same school [3] since / for 13 years but I haven't. When I was 10, I moved to another school. Fortunately we [4] haven't / have lost touch since then. We meet every now and then and do many cool things together. This is easy because we share the same interests. I'm fascinated [5] with / by pop music and Amanda is too! We spend many hours on the Internet looking for new video clips and stuff like that. Of course, we are also interested [6] in / with boys. I must say I'm a bit shy when it comes to meeting the boys we like, but Amanda is very good at [7] finding / find out every single detail about them. I think she might become a very good detective in the future if she wanted to! I'm happy to have Amanda as my best friend but I'm very worried now [8] with / about something really important: Amanda and I have a crush on the same boy. What should we do?

Present perfect with Just/ already and yet

Fill in the gaps with just, already and yet.
