A pedigree chart showing a family structure. At the top, a male (1) and a female (2) are connected by a horizontal line. A vertical line descends from their union and branches into two vertical lines. The left vertical line leads to a male (3) and a female (4) connected by a horizontal line. The right vertical line leads to a male (5) and a female (6) connected by a horizontal line. From the union of 3 and 4, a vertical line descends and branches into two vertical lines leading to a male (7) and a female (8). From the union of 5 and 6, a vertical line descends and branches into three vertical lines leading to a male (9), a male (10), and a female (11). The male (10) is labeled 'Dean' below him.
