

LEWIS'S PROBLEM

Click in the box to study the expressions:

1 Write the expressions to match the pictures (use the third person singular):

2 Choose the correct answer and write it in the box next to the question:

Because he sits too close to the TV. Lewis should have an eye test.

He can't see properly from back there. He's got a headache.

Lewis wants painkillers. His mother is going to phone the optician's.

1 What does Lewis want?

2 Why does he want them?

3 Why does his mother think he's got a headache?

4 Why doesn't he want to sit in an armchair?

5 What is his mother going to do?

6 Why?