EXAM CARD # 6

1. Read the emails. Match choices (A–H) to (1–5). There are three choices you do not need to use.

1. Hi, Alice!

I hope all is well in your new city. Everything here is passing by so quickly, and the summer months are almost gone. It's only been a little while since you left, but everything feels different. Even though it's super sad that you don't live just a bus ride away anymore, I really do hope that your new life is going well.

Much love, Kate

2. Hi, Anne!

So, how are you and the family doing? If I remember correctly, Susie is just about to start kindergarten, right? That must be exciting; she was always such a bright girl. And what grade is Jack going into? 7^{th} or 8^{th}?

Best Wishes, Ben

3. Hi, Tom!

Listen, we've been working on the Smith account and I was wondering if you could give me a hand? I need some inside information on recent developments over there. Do you think you could pass on any information you might have?

Thanks, Peter

4. Hi, John!

How are you doing? I hope you're well. Since we last talked, I started dating someone. It's been going great. Have you started dating anyone?

Much love, Erik

5. Hi, Steve!

How are you doing? I heard you had the flu, and I wanted to see how you're doing. I hope you're well now. I'm sorry it's been so long since we talked. I've been really busy. By the way, that game we watched the other week was insane! What do you think about the final goal?

See you soon, John

Which email mentions ...

A. moving to a new place of living?
B. playing football with friends?
C. some hopes for the recovery from the illness?
D. some interest about children?
E. school studies?
F. a request for help?
G. meetings with a new girlfriend?
H. sad feelings about summer?

1	2	3	4	5

LIVEWORKSHEETS