

Read each question carefully. Choose the best answer. Write the letter in the box provided.

1. A Cow Called Boy is a _____.
 - a. Drama
 - b. Poem
 - c. Novel

2. Who is the author of A Cow Called Boy?
 - a. Everard C. Palmer
 - b. C. Palmer Everard
 - c. C. Everard Palmer

3. Which character did Josh receive Boy from?
 - a. Ben Watson
 - b. Tom Kelly
 - c. His father

4. What conflict did Josh experience at the beginning of chapter one?
 - a. He was late because his pet calf kept following him.
 - b. He overslept and was late.
 - c. He lost his summer project.

5. What is the main setting of the story?
 - a. The school yard
 - b. Kendal, Jamaica
 - c. Josh's backyard

6. Which character is the protagonist?
 - a. Mrs. Mahon
 - b. Boy
 - c. Josh

7. Which description below best describes Mr. Tom Kelly?

- He was beautiful and chubby.
- He dressed in khaki trousers, a blue shirt and cap and walking with a limp.
- He was fat around the waist and ham-armed; wearing an apron.

8. Write simile or metaphor.
"He was now happy as a lark." _____

9. Which description best describes Boy?

- He was beautiful, chubby and mostly greyish but spotted with white.
- He was a nuisance.
- He was bubbly and full of joy and tricks.

10. Which description best describes Josh?

- He was as solid as a wooden barrel.
- He is a prankster who always made up good reasons for his mischiefs.
- He wore khakis and trousers.

11. What is an antagonist?

- The hero of the story.
- The insignificant character that has no real role.
- The villain of the story who opposes the hero.

12. What is character?

- Tells who (people, animals, object) the story is about and who does the action of the story.
- Tells when and where the story happens.
- Tells the series of events in a story.