UMM KULTHUM

Umm Kulthum was probably the most famous singer of the Arab world in the 20th century. Even today, more than three decades after her death, she is known as "the voice of Egypt" and "the star of the East", and her music can often be heard on radio and television.

She was born in a village in northern Egypt in around 1904 and showed an extraordinary singing talent from an early age. When she was 12 years old, she started performing in a small group directed by her father. Four years later, she was noticed by a famous musician, who invited her to Cairo. A. _____ Her radio concerts, held on the first Thursday of every month, were famous for emptying the streets of some of the world's busiest cities as people rushed home to listen.

Umm Kulthum's songs are about the universal themes of love and loss. A typical concert would consist of two or three songs performed over a period of up to six hours. B. _____. One of her techniques was to repeat a single line of a song's lyrics again and again, slightly changing the emphasis each time to bring her listeners into a euphoric state. C. _____

Umm Kulthum gave her last concert in 1973. She died in Cairo on February 3, 1975. Her funeral was attended by one of the largest gatherings in history –over four million people. Since her death, it is estimated that about a million copies of her records have been sold every year.

Task A *Insert the sentences/clauses 1 to 3 in the corresponding blank and complete the boxes with A, B or C.

1	The duration of her songs varied from concert to concert and was based on the interaction between singer and audience.
2	It is said that she never sang a line the same way twice.
3	There, she was introduced to the poet Ahmad Rami, who wrote at least 137 songs for her.

Task B Circle T for true and F for false. Correct the false statement/s on the blank line/s below.

4	Umm Kulthum is not as popular today as she used to be.	T	F

_____

5	Her concerts were long because she sang a large number of songs.	T	F
