HALLOWEEN TRADITIONS

3. Read and drag the name of the Halloween tradition to the right text:

are hollowed out pumpkins with a face cut in one side and a candle put inside. In the old days people lit fires to scare away bad spirits. They believed light had power over darkness. Today Jack-o-lanterns are supposed to frighten away ghosts and witches.

Apple Bobbing

Dressing up

Trick or Treat

Jack-o-lanterns

One Halloween party game is called 'bobbing for apples'. Apples are put in a big bowl full of water. The players, sometimes blindfolded must take an apple out of the water without using their hands.

On Halloween, when it was believed that bad spirits came back to the earthly world, people thought they would meet ghosts if they left their homes. To avoid being recognized by ghosts people would wear masks when they left homes after dark so that the ghosts would mistake them for fellow spirits. That's why Halloween costumes are traditionally monsters such as vampires, ghosts, witches and devils.

Children in costumes go from house to house in their neighbourhood, often in small groups, in order to ask for treats such as sweets, lollipops, chocolates or money. When someone answers the door, the children say: 'Trick or treat?' The 'trick' is a threat to perform mischief on the homeowners or their property if no treat is given.

4. Identify the SUBJECT, the VERB and the COMPLEMENT of the following sentences and drag them to the right place:

go / from house / to house / children in / costumes

on / they / the door / knock

door / opens / someone / the
SUBJECT	VERB	COMPLEMENT

ask for / treats such as / sweets or lollipops / children

say / "trick / or / they / treat"

the children / the homeowners / treats to / give

Choose the picture with the Halloween Tradition that is explained in the sentences above.

5. Play the video again, practice the pronunciation of the lyrics and record your voice:

Boys and girls of every age Wouldn't you like to see something strange
