STEVE JOBS

Today I want to tell you stories from my life. That's it. No big deal. It is the first od the three stories.

The first story is about connecting the dots. It started before I was born. My biological mother was a young, unwed graduate student, and she decided to put me up for adoption. So my parents, who were on a waiting list, got a call in the middle of the night asking: "We got an unexpected baby boy; do you want him?" They said: "Of course." This was the start in my life.
