

Unit 1 - Where are you from? Listen and fill the blanks

Recording 1

Stan: We have to decide what to do for our holiday this year!

Julie: I think we should go on a [redacted]. Don't you think it would be wonderful to have a holiday on a ship, sailing across the ocean and calling at a different [redacted] each day?

Stan: That does sound [redacted] but isn't it expensive?

Julie: It's not as much as you think. Look, in this [redacted] there's a cruise to the [redacted] that's only £500 per person.

Stan: Oh yes. It goes to Italy, then the [redacted] islands, Turkey, and finishes in Egypt. Oh, it looks great.

Julie: It does, [redacted] that we've been to a couple of those places already.

Stan: You're right. That wouldn't be very exciting. What about this one, to Canada and the [redacted]. Look at the amazing [redacted], all these mountains, and ice for miles!

Julie: We've only got a week, remember. We need something that's a bit nearer.

Stan: OK. What about this one in Northern Europe? It starts in [redacted] and then goes to [redacted]. After that, [redacted] and then [redacted]

Julie: That's a possibility. There's another one here that goes to [redacted], Denmark and the [redacted]. It's the same number of days, but you spend more time on the ship and less time visiting cities.

Stan: That sounds more [redacted] doesn't it? And look at these photos of the ship!

Julie: It's very smart, isn't it?

Stan: Yes, and read this list of activities. I don't think you could ever be [redacted] on this ship.

Julie: I see what you mean. It's a [redacted] there's no indoor pool though. I love swimming and it will be too cold for us to swim in the sea.

Stan: It [redacted] will! So do you want to book it?

Julie: OK. Let's try it! If we like it, we can do a longer cruise next year - maybe South America, or [redacted] or India!

Stan: Or maybe the whole world!
