

A boy and a girl meet at a train station.

The boy shows the paper sheet to the girl.

The boy goes to his job very sad because he wants to know more about the girl.

He looks at the girl in the building across the street.

When suddenly, the boy looks out the window and....

But, the girl was already in a train wagon.

A worksheet flies through the air and ends in the face of the girl.

The young man when removing the worksheet realizes that the girl paints a kiss on it.

He decides to make a paper airplane with sheet with the kiss painted

The boy decides to throw the paper plane so it arrives to her.

But, the girl leaves the building.

The girl walks on the street.

The plane comes to where the girl was.

She recognizes the plane immediately and she is looking for the boy.

The boy appeared suddenly and finally destiny joins them falling in love.
