It was a dark and stormy Tuesday night. My car had broken and I went to look for help. I walked along the road and crossed the dark lush grass. I saw creepy trees in the distance with no leaves. I came across an abandoned, haunted looking wooden house with broken windows.

The house was very old. There were no other houses around. I went to knock on the slightly opened door. No one answered so I went inside and the door closed and locked itself behind me. I started to hear creepy sounds! I tried to open the door but it would not open. I shouted loudly but no one heard me. I tried to kick the door down but it would not budge. I was afraid.
