

The Articles of Confederation Multiple Choice Questions

1. What government existed before the Revolutionary War?

A. George Washington was the president before the war

B. France controlled the government

C. There was no national government. Each state governed themselves.

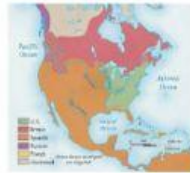

2. What was the problem with the government during the Revolution?

A. There was no national army or navy

B. There were no boundaries.

C. They didn't like the Declaration of Independence.

3. What were the Articles of Confederation?

A. A map of the colonies

B. A framework for America's first government

C. When General Cornwallis was defeated

4. Which was a benefit of the Articles of Confederation?

A. There was no national army or navy

B. States kept their power

C. There was no president

5. Which was a weakness of the Articles of Confederation?

A. There was no president

B. States kept their power

C. It was a framework for America's first government

