Jennifer

What are you going to do next weekend?

What am I going to do next weekend? Well, I'm not sure, but I think I'll probably stay at home all day on Saturday and clean my apartment. I know that sounds pretty boring, but my apartment is a bit messy. It's about time I cleaned it up! On Sunday, however, I have some more interesting plans. I'm going to meet two or three friends at a restaurant at eight o'clock and have breakfast. We usually do that once or twice a month. After that, we're going to go window shopping at a shopping mall. At noon, we're going to have lunch. We're going to eat at an Italian restaurant. I love Italian food! And then we'll probably visit a museum. I don't really like to go to museums that much, but my friends really like museums. But I think I'll still have a good time!

1. Why is Jennifer going to stay at home on Saturday?
2. Where is she going to meet her friends on Sunday morning?
3. What time is she going to meet them on Sunday morning?
4. Where is Jennifer going to have lunch on Sunday?
5. What will Jennifer probably do after lunch on Sunday?

Writing

Write what you are going to do next weekend. Use both 'will' (for possibilities) and 'be going to' (for definite plans).
