REVISION ACTIVITIES

1. Complete the mini-dialogue with the nouns in the box.

album audience blockbuster genre horror tracks

Tonia: Have you seen the queue outside the Odeon cinema? It's right round the corner!

Stu: They're showing a new (1) film this evening. Everyone's being saying for weeks that it'll be a (2)

Tonia: Well, there's certainly going to be a huge (3) at the Odeon tonight. Do you fancy going to see the film at the weekend?

Stu: Yeah, why not? It's not usually my favourite film (4) , but they've used some (5) from my favourite group's latest (6) . I'd like to go just to hear the music.

2. Complete the sentences with the adjectives in the box and a negative prefix.

censored decent legal mature responsible suitable

1. If a film is rated '18', it's for very young people.
2. As it contains language, it isn't easy to find an version of Eminem's album Recovery.
3. It's to play other people's music in public without written permission.
4. Stop being so ! Why don't you act your age?
5. It was very of them to show an '18' film to children.

3. Rewrite the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Replace the underlined words with one word.

1. It's not right to hide legal problems from someone you plan to marry.

It's from someone you plan to marry.

2. In the film, Jon plays a young boy who is very badly behaved.

In the film, boy.

3. I found his new book offensive and unpleasant.

I found .

4. Is it against the law to download films for free?

Is it films for free?

5. The actors wore costumes that weren't appropriate for the 1950s.

The actors wore for the 1950s.

6. It's too dangerous to walk in the city centre at night.

It's at night.

4. Complete the sentences with an appropriate adjective and negative prefix.

1. The singer wrote Dawn a letter, but her writing is so bad it's .
2. Those theatre seats were really ; my back still hurts.
3. The book launch was very . They forgot to tell the author what time he should come.
4. The actor is very . He behaves like a child.
5. The audience was so with the concert that many people asked for their money back.
6. Don't be so ! The band will be on in a minute!

LIVEWORKSHEETS