NATURAL WONDERS OF MALAYSIA

DEER CAVE

Located in Mulu National Park, this world's largest cave passage is over 2 kilometres long and 174 metres high. Two to three million bats from over 12 different species live here.

MOUNT KINABALU

This is the highest mountain in Malaysia and is part of the Kinabalu Park. It is a haven for unique and beautiful plants. Apart from conquering the mountain, you get to see oak, chestnut and laurel trees. There are also many varieties of orchids and pitcher-plants around the park.

MANGROVES

These trees grow along coastlines and help prevent erosion. They can adapt to the changing mix of salt water and fresh water. Mangroves are an important sanctuary for various species of animals that live among their roots. Mangrove swamps can be found in Langkawi Island, Bako National Park and Kuching Wetlands National Park.

RAFFLESIA

This parasite flower is up to one meter in diameter but does not have any roots, leaves or stem. If that doesn't make it unique, here is another fascinating fact. It only blooms for three to five days before it rots. The best place to see the world's largest flower is in Gunung Gading National Park in Sarawak. You can also head to Taman Negara or other parks in East Malaysia to see them.

ENDANGERED TURTLES

There are seven types of turtle species in the world and amazingly, four of them are found in Malaysia. The hawksbill and the green turtle nest within the Turtle Islands National Park in Sabah. These species as well as the olive Ridley and the giant leatherback can be found in the waters off Peninsular Malaysia. If diving is your passion, head to Redang Island to see green and hawksbill turtles as well as colourful corals and tropical fish.

SECTION E

You are going to read a dialogue between two friends in a hospital. Six sentences have been removed from the dialogue. Choose from the sentences (A - H) to fit each gap (1 - 6). There are two extra sentences which you do not need to use. For each question, mark the correct answer (1 - 6)

Nurse : Simon, you have a visitor.

Simon : Hi, Suresh. How did you know I was here?

Suresh: I called you last night. Your mother told me you had been warded. I was shocked to hear the news. What actually happened?

Simon : I was walking home two days ago when a stray dog chased me. I ran but tripped and fell.

1

Suresh: Did the dog bite you?

Simon : No, but it nearly did! I tried to grab a stick to chase it away. 2 . I was scared out of my wits and shouted for help. James was around and came to help me.

Suresh: That's great! You're lucky he was around. What did he do?

3

Simon : I owe him my life. I will treat him later.

Suresh: I remember last time James came to your rescue too, didn't he?

4

Simon : Yes, this is the second time. The first time, I fell off my bicycle. I had hurt my knee. I am really grateful to him. He's a good friend. I hope I will be able to help him in return.

Suresh: How long will you be warded?

Simon : Actually, today is my last day. 5 . I can't wait to leave the hospital. How did you come?

Suresh: My brother gave me a lift. He's also visiting someone here. I can't stay long. In fact, I have to go now. Don't worry about missing school. 6

Simon : Okay, that would be great! I feel better already. Thanks for visiting me. See you soon.

- A But the dog just growled and came nearer.
- B The dog jumped on me and bit me.
- C I twisted my ankle and hurt my back.
- D James chased the dog away before it bit me.
- E James helped me to walk and push the bicycle all the way home.
- F I will be warded for another week.
- G I'll help you to catch up with the lessons.
- H I will be discharged this evening.
