7 Choose the correct word.

1 The band is recording/taping/documenting a new album.

2 Her new single will be performed/let/released in record stores this month.

3 Backing/Support/Prop singers sing in harmony with the lead vocalist.

4 It took the composer/conductor/choir two years to write his most famous opera.

5 It costs less to record/download/copy music from online music stores than to buy a CD.

6 You can book/hold/save tickets for the concert online or in person at the box office/desk/post

Newspapers/Magazines

Fill in:

columns editorial glossy

headlines morning tabloid

1 Bliss is a(n) _____ magazine that focuses on the glamorous lifestyles of celebrities.

2 He eats his breakfast and reads the latest stories in the _____ paper before he goes to work.

3 A(n) _____ newspaper is smaller than a broadsheet.

4 Today's newspaper devoted several _____ to the subject of the upcoming elections.

5 Laura's article was selected as the _____ for this week's edition of the magazine.

6 As he was going past the newsagent's he quickly read the _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9 Replace the phrases in bold with the correct form of the idioms.

bring the house down | keep one's feet on the ground | sing one's heart out

steal the show | sweep the board

1 She sang with her full effort and energy / _____ at the audition.

2 She was the outstanding performer / _____ in the theatrical production.

3 The rock band excited the audience / _____ when they played their hit song.

4 Despite his worldwide fame, he still manages to have a sensible attitude / _____.

5 His latest film won all the major prizes / _____ at the awards ceremony.

Complete the gaps with the word derived from the words in bold. CHECK

The Tate Modern is an 1) _____ (amaze) art gallery in London. Its 2) _____ (collect) includes some of the best 3) _____ (national) exhibitions of art with lots of masterpieces for visitors to see. The paintings are separated into 4) _____ (differ) wings of the museum and are categorised by art 5) _____ (move) such as Surrealism and Minimalism. There is also a special 6) _____ (install) exhibited in the centre of each wing to try and explain each period's 7) _____ (significant) in contemporary art. 8) _____ (enter) is free except for major exhibitions and free daily tours are offered. Young visitors can sketch the artworks on display in the gallery on small drawing pads. The Tate Modern has something for every art lover.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the odd word out.

1 main – principal – central – top character

2 true – expressive – narrative – literary style

3 realistic – amused – thrilling – convincing performance

4 dubbed – foreign – broadsheet – sci-fi film

5 satisfied – dramatic – predictable – surprising ending

1 He brought back/up/out/on his novel in May.

2 Sign in/up/on/out to the film club and get great discounts on cinema tickets.

3 The festival was put off/on/out/up due to rain.

4 The band put their success down/out/back/aside to their spectacular live performances.

5 They called off/back/up/on their tour dates.

LIVEWORKSHEETS